Deputy Secretary to the Government of India,

TO

ALL MINOR LOCAL GOVERNMENTS.

SIR,

I am directed to forward herewith a copy of the rules made by the Governor General in Council to regulate the conditions of service of personnel who have been retrenched during the present retrenchment campaign and who are re-employed or continued in employment in a service subject to the rule-making control of the Governor General in Council. These rules should be seen by and explained to all personnel who have already been re-employed or continued in employment or whom it is proposed to re-employ or continue in employment. They should be left perfectly free to accept or decline the conditions set out in the rules. If they accept those conditions, they should be required to sign a statement in the attached form. If they decline to sign the statement, their renewed employment should be terminated or not sanctioned as the case may be. It will be seen from rule 4 as read with this Department Resolution No. D.4523-Ex. I|31, dated the 9th July 1931 (copy annexed) that all appointments made under the rules should be on a provisional footing, that is to say, in an officiating capacity. The pay of Government servants so appointed is subject to revision on the introduction of the new scales of pay which are at present under the consideration of Government. As regards leave, they will, for the present, be governed by the leave rules in the Fundamental Rules; when, however, the new leave rules, which are under preparation, are issued, they will be governed by the general orders regulating the application of the new leave rules.

I have the honour to be,

NOTIFICATION.

Simla, the 9th September 1932.

No. F. 6-XXIV-R.II|32.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, the Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following rules :—

1. These rules may be called the Re-employed Personnel (Conditions of Service) Rules, 1932.

2. In these rules—

(a) “re-employed government servant” means a government servant who, having been discharged or permitted to retire on the conditions contained in the retrenchment orders, or having been discharged in such circumstances that the said conditions would have applied but for the excluding provision in order 1 of Section A of the said orders, is thereafter re-employed, or before the taking effect of his retirement is continued in employment, in a service (not being a Central Service Class I) subject to the rule-making power of the Governor General in Council under the Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules ;

(b) “re-employment” with its grammatical variations and cognate expressions includes such continuance in employment as aforesaid ;

(c) “previous service” means the service of a re-employed government servant, preceding his discharge or the grant of permission to retire as aforesaid ;

(d) “Retrenchment Orders” means the orders circulated with the memorandum of the Government of India in the Finance Department No. 78-II-Ex. I-31, dated the 12th November 1931.

3. No government servant shall be rendered ineligible for re-employment in any service by reason of his age unless he has attained the age prescribed for superannuation from that service.

4. Subject to the provisions of these rules a re-employed government servant shall be subject to such conditions of service in respect of pay, leave and all other matters as would for the time being be applicable to him if he had entered government service for the first time on the date of his re-employment.

5. Where the previous service of a re-employed government servant was pensionable the following provisions shall apply with respect to the retention of the compensation pension or gratuity (not including the special gratuity sanctioned under order 6 in Section B of the Retrenchment Orders) accruing in respect of his previous service—

(1) If the government servant is re-employed in superior service with an initial pay of not less than 75 per cent. of the pay of the permanent (non-tenure) post on which he held a lien (active or suspended) on the date of his receipt of notice of discharge or of acceptance of his offer to retire, the portion, if any, of such compensation pension or gratuity which he shall be permitted to retain shall be determined by the Governor General in Council.

(2) A government servant re-employed in superior service with an initial pay of less than 75 per cent. of such pay as aforesaid or in inferior service shall be entitled to retain the whole of such compensation pension or gratuity.

(3) If the pay of a government servant re-employed in superior service whose initial pay on re-employment was not less than 75 per cent. of such pay as aforesaid thereafter becomes less than 75 per cent. thereof by reason of a reduction in the rates of pay applicable to the service in which he is re-employed he shall be entitled from the date of such reduction to receive the whole of such compensation pension as aforesaid, or as the case may be to receive payment of such compensation gratuity as aforesaid less any amount thereof which he may have been permitted to retain under clause (1).

6. (1) Where a government servant is re-employed in permanent superior service before the expiration of the leave granted under order 2 in Section B of the Retrenchment Orders he shall notwithstanding re-employment be entitled to draw leave salary in addition to pay for the unexpired portion of such leave, and the period during which leave salary is so drawn shall be reckoned as leave for the purposes of clause (1) of order 4 in Section B of the Retrenchment Orders ; provided as follows :—

(a) Any compensation pension or gratuity retained under rule 5 shall not commence or become due for payment until such leave has expired ;

(b) No period of re-employment otherwise qualifying for a second pension or gratuity shall so qualify if it coincides with a period already reckoned by virtue of the Retrenchment Orders for compensation pension or gratuity in respect of previous service, or with a period in respect of which the re-employed government servant continues under sub-rule (1) of rule 10 to be a member of a Contributory Government Provident Fund applicable to his previous service.

(2) Where a government servant is re-employed in permanent superior service, he shall refund in such instalments as the re-employing authority may direct the amount, if any, by which the gratuity payable under order 6 in Section B of the Retrenchment Orders exceeds—

(a) in the case of a government servant whose initial pay on re-employment is not less than the pay on which the said gratuity was calculated an amount

For interpretation,
See S.N.-9

equal to 1/24th of a month's pay, determined in accordance with the said order 6, for each completed month which elapses between the expiration of leave on full or average pay and the date of re-employment ;

- (b) in the case of a government servant whose initial pay on re-employment is less than the pay on which the said gratuity was calculated the aggregate of such amount as aforesaid and of an amount calculated in accordance with the formula contained in the said order 6 on the basis of the excess of the pay on which the said gratuity was calculated over the initial pay on re-employment.

Explanation : Where the amount specified in clause (a) or the aggregate of the amounts specified in clause (b) as the case may be, exceeds the gratuity payable under the said order 6, no additional payment shall be made.

(3) A government servant re-employed in permanent superior service shall not be required to refund any travelling allowance drawn in accordance with order 7 in Section B of the Retrenchment Orders and actually utilised but he shall receive no travelling allowance for the purpose of joining Government service on re-employment.

7. (1) Sub-rules (1) and (3) of rule 6 shall apply to a government servant re-employed in temporary or officiating superior service in like manner as they apply to a government servant re-employed in permanent superior service.

(2) A government servant re-employed in temporary or officiating superior service shall be entitled to draw and retain the whole of the gratuity payable, under order 6 in section B of the Retrenchment Orders ; provided that if his service thereafter becomes permanent he shall be required to refund in such instalments as the re-employing authority may direct the amount, if any, which he would have been required to refund under sub-rule (2) of rule 6 if he had originally been re-employed in permanent service.

8. A government servant re-employed in inferior service, whether permanent, officiating or temporary, shall be entitled to retain all the concessions accruing to him under the Retrenchment Orders including leave salary for any period admissible as leave under the said orders but coinciding wholly or partly with a period of re-employment ; provided that no period of re-employment otherwise qualifying for a second pension or gratuity shall so qualify if it coincides with a period already reckoned by virtue of Retrenchment Orders for the original compensation pension or gratuity.

9. If any question arises whether the service in which a government servant is re-employed is permanent or officiating or temporary, or whether it is superior or inferior, the question shall be referred to the Governor General in Council whose decision shall be final.

10. (1) Where a re-employed government servant is on the date of his re-employment a member of a government provident fund (whether contributory or not) applicable to his previous service, he shall continue to be a member of such fund until the date of expiration of the leave granted to him under order 2 in Section B of the Retrenchment Orders on which date the amount standing to his credit in the fund shall become payable :

Provided that nothing in this sub-rule shall operate to the prejudice of any rule of the fund permitting the whole or any part of such amount to be paid on an earlier date.

(2) Where a re-employed government servant is required or permitted under the conditions of service applicable to him on re-employment to become a member of a government provident fund (whether contributory or not) his obligation or as the case may be his right to become a member of such fund shall, if the date of his re-employment precedes the date of expiration of the leave granted to him under order 2 in Section B of the Retrenchment Orders, not take effect until the last-named date.

(3) Where a re-employed government servant continues under sub-rule (1) to be a member of a government provident fund applicable to his previous service until the date of expiration of the leave granted to him under order 2 in Section B of the Retrenchment Orders and becomes on the same date a member of a government provident fund applicable to his service on re-employment he shall, whether or not the fund applicable to his service on re-employment is the same fund as the fund applicable to his previous service, become a member of the fund applicable to his service on re-employment on the footing of a new member and his account in the fund applicable to his previous service shall be closed with effect from the date on which the amount standing to his credit therein becomes payable under sub-rule (1).

(4) This rule shall be deemed to be incorporated in, and shall have effect notwithstanding anything otherwise contained in, the rules of any provident fund affected thereby.

Simla, the 29th June 1933.

No. F.17A.-II/B. II/33.—In order to regulate the conditions of service of the re-employed retrenched temporary personnel in superior and inferior service of the Survey of India, and similar other retrenched personnel, the Governor General in Council is pleased, under the Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, to add at the end of the Rules known as the Re-employed Personnel (Conditions of Service) Rules, 1932, published with this Department Notification, No. F.6/XXIV-R. II/32, dated the 9th September 1932, the following Note—

Note.—These Rules shall apply mutatis mutandis to personnel who on discharge from a quasi-permanent or temporary service were granted any concession, outside the ordinary rules, under special orders and for whom no special rules to regulate re-employment have been issued by the Governor General in Council."
